The Poetry Contest 3rd Place prize goes to Abdelghafour Loumadi for his poem, “The Universe as representation”

I live and heave in this universe
That by this it splits into two streams so diverse
Thus without bold-bloody meaning I complete this verse

Here upon the white horse I pick up the pace
Embattled and bellicose I race
Against the wrong willful winds’ face

I capture some piece of it whenever I can
Like a lonesome lion that hunts down from the cattle
Although clear-crowned atop the castle
Am I? No! I am no lion’s fan

Our sympathies wild are
As heaven, that no ship reached as far
But clung closely to a semi-red star

Our demeaned, degreed desires are shifting
Perhaps! The order is lifting

To read this poem in its entirety, come to the Student Activities Office, 2nd floor, above the Student Center.
