

Black Student Success Week

Follow the Money: Unapologetically Supporting Black Students.

April
26

Moving as One: Our collective work & responsibility in creating equitable educational environments for Black Students to thrive | 3:00pm - 5:00pm | Zoom Link

Join speakers Nzingha Dugas and Katrina King as they provide an overview of what Black student advocacy is from various positions within institutions. They will provide strategies on what admin, faculty, and staff can do in collaboration with students to improve the racial climate. Presented by Golden West College.

April
27

Black Student Success Champions: Q&A Panel | 3:00pm - 5:00pm | Zoom Link

Join the Black Student Success Champions from the Coast Community College District for a question and answer session. Presented by Orange Coast College.

April
28

Career Spotlight: Black Success in the Film Industry | 3:00pm - 4:30pm | Zoom Link

Presented by OCC UMOJA and ASOCC, join a conversation with Professor Desha Dauchan, UC Irvine Film and Media Studies, who will provide a historical perspective of the Black film industry. Presented by Orange Coast College.

April
29

The Power of Resilience Webinar: How to Manage the Unexpected | 3:00pm - 5:00pm | Zoom Link

Join speaker Brianna Clay as she discusses the importance of being resilient the skills needed to overcome any challenges you may be facing. It's time to decide the best way to G.R.I.N.D (Growth.Resilience.Identity.Network.Determination) through your educational journey. Presented by Golden West College.

Community and Care Conversation | 4:30pm - 5:30pm | Zoom Link

Attend the student conversation hosted by Coastline's Umoja on Community and Care. How can do we take care of ourselves and our community? Presented by Coastline College

The Black Hour Daily Webinars | 12:00pm - 1:00pm | Link to Register

The California Community Colleges Chancellor's Office will be hosting daily webinars held throughout the week. We invite you to register for these daily webinars called The Black Hour where we will engage in discussions exploring this year's theme Follow the Money: Unapologetically Supporting Black Students.

